

Big Cyber Quiz – Answer Sheet

Answers:

Round 1:

Answer 1: Website: http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/8_10/control/chat/

- When you're chatting online try NOT to give out any personal information about yourself.

Answer 2: Website: http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/8_10/control/social/

- It's not a good idea to allow a stranger to have access to your site - they may not be who they say they are and you don't want a stranger knowing lots of things about you! If someone you don't know asks to be your friend, tell a trusted adult straight away.

Answer 3: Website: http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/8_10/control/gaming1/

- The 3 rules are:
 1. Don't respond and don't reply.
 2. Save all nasty emails and messages.
 3. Tell a trusted adult.

Round 2:

Answer 1: Website: <http://www.childline.org.uk/Explore/Bullying/Pages/online-bullying.aspx>

- If you use digital technology to upset, anger or embarrass someone on purpose, this means you are involved in online bullying.

Answer 2: Website: <http://www.childline.org.uk/Explore/Bullying/Pages/online-bullying.aspx>

- Often the first step in stopping it is telling someone about it. Someone you trust could help you report the cyber bullying and give you more confidence to deal with the situation.

Answer 3: Website: <http://www.childline.org.uk/Explore/Bullying/Pages/online-bullying.aspx>

- Bullying is not specifically against the law, but harassment or threatening behaviour is. That means if someone keeps making you feel scared on purpose, what they are doing could be illegal.
